My pen broke way in Pines
I'm still writing down their order
Catch the ops I do my chores grab your luggage like the porter
Say he in my corner but I'm like fuck that shit I'm bending a corner
Strapped up like a horse back. Bitch go look at his crib that for a hoarder
That paper lead the way
Cease and he a sis forgot to cease
And when I speak to the deceased
I'm leaving blood on every beat
Everybody around you starving fuck you mean we all eat
Jeffrey wrote that shit in stone he engraved it in the streets

So close the curtain let that colt bang
So darkness what they see
They tried to knock my nose off
That smells like teen spirit to me
Close minded open hearted he a hybrid can't you see
They thought I was soft more like the fresh meat

Wadddl1llttt

I asked them to let me go to spazzing
Them boys flaggin
Skipa no da flippa jit but lately I've been having
Oh. This Glock came with a clip. I taught them how to train your Dragon
Not the movie this real life. They hate me with a burning passion

Pockets surfing very swell
I'm feeling well
Pull up with the Mac I'm rolling in the deep this not a dell
I want six M's doubled to minus one and fuck 12
If all spirits break loose, I'm raising the roof not hell

Pull up and do it real well
He dripping or drowning, can't tell
That boy a deer in headlights three stripes there's no gazelle
And if they leak the cul-de-sac, then Jit I promise to rebel

They tried to victimizer the Jit and they got painted Rafael
