

Open Your Mind

BLP KOSHER

Aidan Han Beats
Ibis, what the hell?

Water, ay

Open your mind and your heart
Open your mind and your heart

Got rid of that lil' 30 clip, this bitch hold 40 now
Everybody around me acting funny, I can't turn around
You say, "Come. I don't get fat," but you ain't hungry now
Can't express the way I feel, they gon' weigh me down
Sometimes I wanna end it all, but God send me a sign, so wait
I'm runnin' from myself, down the hall
Contemplate, don't quit the race
Downward spiral in my head, but I'm still holding out to faith
The world created a monster but the spirit just won't let me break

When I turn around the boulevard
Stay secluded 'cause I'm too bizarre
Used to tote them knives, could've turned my life, I wasn't that far
Tormented and it's tauntin'
They gon' see when I come out the dark

Open your mind and your heart
Open your mind and your heart

There's a violent lullaby goin' on inside of my head
I'm so tired but differently wired, I haven't cried in years
I think I need to vent
And I been praying for a clear head
I lost my dawg to a cop, so I don't fuck with feds
And all these pills is what I pop, I had to up the meds

And I been praying for a clear head
I lost my dawg to a cop, so I don't fuck with feds
And all these pills is what I pop, I had to up the meds

Open your mind and your heart
Open your mind and your heart
