

Hey You

Blu DeTiger

Hey, you
I just had to be someone new
I just had to be someone new
Had to be someone that I knew
It's not fair
Maybe I'll just go dye my hair
Makin' everyone stop and stare
Maybe, baby, that would make you care

Got bored
Skip on down to the corner store
And I bought a new personality
Now I'm cute, got new sanity
Unphased
If you want, then come to my place
And if not, I got shit to do
I won't hit you back anyway

It's too easy to get the attention
I need, it's never enough
But, baby, please won't you save the pretension?
Just leave it and give me your touch

Na, na, na, na, na
Baby, come this way
Na, na, na, na, na
Watching me spill over
Na, na, na, na, na
Be your lucky day
Na, na, na, na, na
Call me four-leaf clover

I'm flirty
And I'm thirty under thirty
I got thirty new looks
Gettin' down and gettin' dirty
So sporty
Pullin' up to every party
With my thirty missed calls
But I pick up for you, baby

It's too easy to get the attention
I need, it's never enough
But, baby, please won't you save the pretension?
Just leave it and give me your touch
Huh

Na, na, na, na, na
Baby, come this way
Na, na, na, na, na
Watching me spill over
Be your lucky day
Na, na, na, na, na

I just had to be someone new, had to be someone new

I just had to be someone new, had to be someone new

Na, na, na, na, na
Baby, come this way
Be your lucky day
Na, na, na, na, na
