

Moxie

Blu DeTiger

Moxie, don't know how you got me
Moxie, your kisses were sloppy
I know you'll never hear this
But my love for you was serious

Moxie, you gave me affection
Unlocked me, don't care who was watching
And my love for you was obvious
But my parents kept uncrossing us
Huh

I was too young to explain, to explain how I felt
I was too young, couldn't save, couldn't save myself
Still, I carry these mistakes, all this weight on my chest
And still, it hurts every day since you left

Moxie
I hope you found another
Someone to love you better
Someone that lasts forever
Moxie
I hope you found another
Someone to love you better
Someone that lasts forever
And ever and ever

I hope you got
Long walks on all of the beaches
Good talks, she loves you to pieces
I know you don't believe me
'Cause I did all the leaving

I hope you got
A big bed, Egyptian cotton
A big yard, somewhere to get lost in
I might be forgotten
But I think about you often

I was too young to explain, to explain how I felt
I was too young, couldn't save, couldn't save myself
Still, I carry these mistakes, all this weight on my chest
And still, it hurts every day since you left

Moxie
I hope you found another
Someone to love you better
Someone that lasts forever
Moxie
I hope you found another
Someone to love you better
Someone that lasts forever
And ever

Ooh, I miss you more
Ooh, I m-m-miss you
You're better off now than before

Moxie

I hope you found another
Someone to love you better
Someone that lasts forever

Moxie

I hope you found another
Someone to love you better
