

6izarre Rave

bludnymph

You thought I fell in love, how bizarre
Now you're all confused, I ate your heart
Made it clear, I wanted one bite
Oops, then you fell in love
How bizarre
How bizarre
How bizarre

I'll admit that baby, I'm a killer
Heartbreak bitch, wanna go Godzilla
You wake up, tear stains on your pillow

Oh, quit that! Why you complaining?
You knew what it was when you signed that paper
Block and delete ya, later skater

I'm painting on the windows with the blood that's from your heart
I guess, I should of warned you, I'm a toxic superstar
You thought that you were different, but you're just like them all
Oops, I did it again
I'ma do it again

You thought I fell in love, how bizarre
Now you're all confused, I ate your heart
Made it clear, I wanted one bite
Oops, then, you fell in love
How bizarre
How bizarre
How bizarre

How bizarre is this? You could be my witness
All I need is a kiss to feel complete bliss
Shivers up and down my spine
Lookin' up to the divine
Hold me close to you, I promise, I won't bite
All my sickness comes out at night
You're so wicked, but you got me tempted
'Bout to risk it, take my life

You thought I fell in love, how bizarre
Now you're all confused, I ate your heart
Made it clear, I wanted one bite
Oops, then, you fell in love
How bizarre
How bizarre
How bizarre
