

Always the same

Blue Café

Don't wait for my inside, it is always the same don't ask me for any sens, why, I'm always the same won't somebody tell me why it all just feel this way won't somebody try to make me stay hold me now, holt me tired cause otherwise I'll run away, run away so hold me now, so, so close I'm gonna tell you that I'm I'm gonna nearly tonight and I, and I hope you never let me down my love you every be my side so the day I choose to tell you every little thing I'm hiding now (I'm gonna tell you about my soul) say, I don't want, I don't wanna stay stay on love, I believe we'll stay out of the world I don't wanna be here all by myself cause I need your love
