

Another Girl

Blue Café

You don't wanna kiss my lips and
We don't talk too much

This is why I think for you
I'm not only one

Lately you don't look at me
There's something in your eyes

Telling me that you don't care
You think of someone else

Ref

You love another girl
There'll be another girl
You love another girl
Now she will be your pearl

You love another girl
There'll be another girl
You love another girl
Now she will be your pearl

First time that I smelled perfume the kind that wasn't mine
I got scared and so confused
That I just turned it down

Held my breath seeing you both
And I couldn't deny

It is time for you to go
I've had enough of crying

Ref

You love another girl
There'll be another girl
You love another girl
Now she will be your pearl

You love another girl
There'll be another girl
You love another girl
Now she will be your pearl

Not with you
No more you cause
I need a love that will not pass me by
Not with you
No more you cause
I need a love so fine

After all I'm really happy
That you've left so fast

I'll be asking no more questions
And you won't have to lie

I won't feel so insecure
With someone by me side

I won't ever let somebody
Hurt me one more time
