Blue Café

Since I was a little girl
Knowing shit about the sex
All the boys were looking at me & the boys were looking strange
I was feeling kind of strange when they were looking at my butt
Didn't understand no, no, no
Why they've called me hot

They wanna talk about
About my sex
They wanna talk about
About my lips /x4

Since I was a little girl
Knowing shit about the sex
All the boys were looking at me & the boys were looking strange
I was feeling kind of strange when they were looking at my butt
Didn't understand
Why they've called me hot
Today when I am older
I'm working in a bar
I'm working as a waitress
I really like this job
The man are the same all the time
They're still looking at me
With the sparkles in their eyes

They wanna talk about
About my sex
They wanna talk about
About my lips /x8
