

Still The Same

Blue Café

I'm still the same,
so don't you cry
I'm still the same,
you can't deny.
I'm still the same.

Why do you want me to be like the clouds in the sky, Why if they're only floating and then they are just passing by,
Always,
So when the storm's coming
I only dance in the rain,
You know me,
Nothing has changed,
I'm still the same

I'm still the same
so don't you cry
I'm still the same
you can't deny
I'm still the same
so don't you cry
I'm still the same

Why do you want me to melt with the rest of the crowd, Why if they're only pretending and then they are just burning out,
Always,
So now I shine with my own light but don't be afraid
you know me,
I'll never change
I'm still the same

I'm still the same
so don't you cry
I'm still the same
you can't deny
I'm still the same
so don't you cry
I'm still the same

ooooohhhhh...it's my life..
ooooohhhh...

I'm still the same
so don't you cry
I'm still the same
you can't deny
I'm still the same
so don't you cry
I'm still the same

ooooohhhhh...it's my life..
ooooohhhh..
ooooohhhhh...it's my life..
ooooohhhh...
