Blue October

Mr. Slow Down, you're a caveman
Get you, gotta fix ya
You like a little sister
Juju calm down, let me let me teach ya
Mr. Call Me Back, you a text I miss ya

You mistaken me for someone else baby
I'll be gone in a minute
My time is money, sweet like honey
What's so funny
I don't fuck with you
There's a limit

You'll be watching me change
Keep watching me change
I'm sweating you out of me
You'll be watching me change

Mr. Go Away, you're a milkman
You got funny faces, you a big fan
How many times I gotta let you know
You gotta remember you're an audience member
Not a part of the show
Not a part of the show

Mistaken me for someone else baby
Well, I'll be gone in a minute
My time is money, sweet like honey
What's so funny
I don't fuck with you
There's a limit

You'll be watching me change
Keep watching me change
I'm sweating you out of me
You'll be watching me change

Cold blood, chilling to the bone
Girl, I'd rather be alone
Don't try to stop me now
Won't turn my head around
I think it's time I left you alone

'Cause you'll be watching me change
Keep watching me change
I'm sweating you out of me
You'll be watching me change

'Cause you'll be watching me change
Watch me glow in the light
Change
Change
Feel the weight of I'm no longer there
Change
