

Sobriety

Blue October

Fall down through, face down
I want better than before
Better than before
Phase one, then two
Hollowed out and sore
I want better than before

Rise above the Earth, and feel the wind below the wings I'm spreading
Open up to fly over this peace I'm seeking
Rise above the Earth, and feel the wind below the wings I'm spreading
Open up to fly over this peace I'm seeking

All that's stolen
Leave me with all that
Blame it on my heart that's broken
Blame it on the door left open
Leave me with all that
I'll be on my own

All that's stolen
Leave me with all that
Blame it on my heart that's broken
Blame it on the door left open
Leave me with all that
I'll be on my own

Open up to fly over this peace I'm seeking
Rise above the Earth and feel the wind below the wings I'm spreading
Open up to fly over this peace I'm seeking, oh

Rise above the Earth
Rise above the Earth
This peace I'm
Rise above the Earth
This peace I'm seeking, oh
This peace I'm seeking

Rise above the Earth and feel the wind below the wings I'm spreading
Open up to fly over this peace I'm seeking
Rise above the Earth and feel the wind below the wings I'm spreading
Open up to fly over this peace I'm seeking, oh

Rise above it
Ah-ah
Rise above it
Ah-ah
Rise above it
Ah-ah
Rise above it
Ah-ah
