

Good to Feel Hungry

Blue Öyster Cult

It's good to feel hungry when you're about to eat well
It's good to be angry when you're ready to yell
It's good to be angry

It's good to feel certain even when you're not right Sweep back the curtain and let in some light
If there is any light

She calls me, she summons me with a purr
And no amount of cryin' will set me free from her
And only deep feeling, finding my way into feeling Only just being, will free me from her

Sometimes I flirt with despair, as if she were a lady
A pale and black-haired lady
A cool and bloodless lady, yeah

Good to feel, good to feel it's good to feel damn good to feel Good to feel, it's good to feel, it's good to feel damn good to feel
It's good to feel, it's good to feel, it's good to feel damn go od to feel
It's good to feel, it's good to feel, it's good to feel damn go od to feel
Damn good to feel
Damn good to feel
Damn good to feel
