

I Can't Hide This Anymore

Blue Rodeo

I can't hide this anymore
I give up, you win the war
All my memories a blur
But I remember what we were
And I can't hide this anymore

Blue was the colour of your dress the night we met I held your hand and walked you down the road
Full moon shining up above
I heard myself talking but I was falling and falling and falling

I can't hide this anymore
I give up, you win the war
All the cruel things we said
Well they're stuck inside my head
And I can't hide this anymore

Now and again
I think back to better times
To tell you the truth
I thought that we were fine
Now I see you smiling with your friends
A smile I never see oh honey we're stalling and stalling and stalling

I can't hide this anymore
I give up, you win the war
We've both got better things to do
Than sit around and see this through
I can't hide this anymore

Oh rain coming down
Falling like pearls from the sky
Oh me I'm late coming 'round
You must have thought
I was such a fool running around so blind

Now I can't hide this anymore
I give up, you win the war
All my memories a blur
But I remember what we were
And I can't hide this anymore

We've both got better things to do
Than sit around and see this through
