

Hello America

Blue System

Oh, I know everything will turn out fine
That's no lie, oh, it's my time
Don't break my lonely heart, baby, baby

All I want is everything
Restless heart and diamond rings
Don't play with my heart, baby, baby

Oh, give me one more chance to win
Baby, dreams are not a sin

Hello America, I know I'll have to go
I'm not that super tough guy from the TV show
Hello America, I feel like going home
I still believe in fairytales and my chance will come
Wheels they are turning, turning tonight

On the wings of a love, fly with me
Take me as your souvenir
Don't break my lonely heart, baby, baby

Lock my heart, throw the key
Drowning in my fantasy
Don't play with my heart, baby, baby

Give me one more chance to win
Baby, dreams are not a sin

Hello America, I know I'll have to go
I'm not that super tough guy from the TV show
Hello America, I feel like going home
I still believe in fairytales and my chance will come
Wheels they are turning, turning tonight

Hello America, I know I'll have to go
I'm not that super tough guy from the TV show
Hello America, I feel like going home
I still believe in fairytales and my chance will come
