

She's A Lady

Blue System

She's a lady for a jealous heart
She's a devil for a
She's a lady and a broken dream to me

Out of control
The frozen eyes
I'm between the fires
I play the role, I play the dice
Out of my desire
I know her dangerous love
Between the wilde frontiers
I know her
It's been so very hard through the years through the years

She's a lady for a jealous heart
She's a devil for a
She's a lady and a broken dream to me
But she's my girl, she's my girl
And she will never be your lady
She's my world, she's my world
And she will never be your love

Outside the gates
A lonely cry
For a heart survivor
Oh, you will hear her lipstick lies
It takes you higher and higher
She understands the game
On the wings of love
She plays again and again
And you never will get all her love
