

All I Need

Blue

All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me

Our foundation is build up on all this steam
But now we're fighting, you're trying to walk away
How we gon do this if we don't communicate?
I'm trying to save what we have so don't walk away

I know you forsake, I'm tired of all the pain
We cried those tears in-between us, there's no more rain
That struggle line in the seven just start again
Throwing out what we have, baby lost forever

I'm drowning, gotta make it back to shore
I'm feeling incomplete, can't take no more

All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me

I moved out when you said we needed the space
We've had enough time to reconcile
Are you willing to let it all slip away?
Don't let what we had be lost forever

I'm drowning, gotta make it back to shore
I'm feeling incomplete, can't take this

(3x):

You give me all that I need
You give me all that I need
You give me all that I need
You are mine every day
You give me all that I need

All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me
All that I need you give me

All that I need
