

I Believe My Heart

Blue

Whenever i see your face, the world dissappears
All in a single glance of, revealing
You smile and i feel as though, ive known you for years
How do i know to trust what im feeling

I believe my heart, what else can i do
When every part of every thought leads me straight to you
I believe my heart, theres no other choice
For now whenever my heart speaks, i can only hear your voice

A lifetime before we met, has faded away
How did i live a moment without you
You dont have to speak at all, i know what you\'d say
And i know every secret about you

I believe my heart, it believes in you
Its telling me that what i see is completely true
I believe my heart, how can it be wrong
It says that what i feel for you i will feel my whole life long

I believe my heart, it believes in you
Its telling me that what i see is completely true
And with all my soul i believe my heart
The portrait that it paints of you, is a perfect work of art
