

The Vow

Blue

Come on and give me a sign
Don't let the blind lead the blind
They don't believe it
So, come on and let's change their minds
You are the chains of my heart
You're like the dust to the stars
You keep me breathing
Nothing can tear us apart

So, come, help me out
Sing me a love song, tell me I'm not wrong
The sweetest words that you can shout
So, come, tell me now
Let's work it out someday, show me the right way
Cross my heart, I'll take the vow
For you, you, you
Cross my heart, I'll take the vow
For you

Oh, you're a sweet child of mine
You're like a grape to my vine
You pull the trigger, and I'll do the time
Yeah
If you lose your voice, I'll hear your call
When brick by brick breaks from the wall
We'll still be standing
Standing until we both fall

So, come, help me out
Sing me a love song, tell me I'm not wrong
The sweetest words that you can shout
So, come, tell me now
Let's work it out someday, show me the right way
Cross my heart, I'll take the vow
For you, you, you
Cross my heart, I'll take the vow
For you

So, come, help me out
Sing me a love song, tell me I'm not wrong
The sweetest words that you can shout
So, come, tell me now
Let's work it out someday, show me the right way
Cross my heart, I'll take the vow
For you, you, you
Cross my heart, I'll take the vow
