

Dancehall

Blur

There are ghosts in here, an easy laze
They dance all night with a vacant gaze
They stand in rows, buy alcohol
We're having fun at the dancehall

I've got my pills and I've got my toys
Pin-up girls and pin-up boys
My lips are frozen to another can
I could kill him, but I just kiss his hand
