

Goodbye Albert

Blur

Goodbye to you and me
Goodbye to the shallows like refugees singing
We crossed the world
We disappeared
And no one looks to see if we are coming back soon
I was not ready yet
Let it go

Goodbye to you and me
You sat me with me at dawn
Then you left for sea singing
I tried to find you there
Blue parasol
But I could not find it
In this world, denied it
But I think you'd rather
Let it go

I stayed away
I gave you time
Why don't you talk to me anymore?
Don't punish me forever

Goodbye, depression parade
Like a weather front at dawn
It could fade
I was crushed by sleep and unravelled dreams
Washed away for hours
I'd be there, not just send flowers
But I think you'd rather

I stayed away
Got pulled inside
Why don't you talk to me anymore?
Don't punish me
