

Star Shaped

Blur

Wash with new soap behind the collar
Keeps a clean mental state
Don't usually bother in cold weather
But still I'm getting into work late
And I din't need the practise

I've been making plans (for the future)
Become an unconcious man (all for the good)
Feel so unnecessary (we don't think so, you seem starshaped)

I have a couple at the weekend helps keep up comaraderie
And my mind boggles in the muddle
At the possibilities
And I don't need any practise

I've been making plans (for the future)
Become an unconcious man (all for the good)
Feel so unnecessary (we don't think so, you seem starshaped)

Wash with new soap behind the collar
Helps keep down the laundry
And now I bother in cold weather because it cleans me mentally
