Another Dream

BlutEngel

Another dream
Another hope
Another war leads to the end
People will never learn

Only darkness surrounds you
And it's killing the light...
So you can't see what's in the distance
Your fear is still growing
You're afraid of yourself but it's not you
It's not you who designs the future

Another dream
Another hope
Another war leads to the end
People will never learn to understand themselves

Another hope
Another god
Another fear leads to the end
People will always destroy other people's lives

You don't feel safe
You don't feel safe in your on world
How long must you hide yourself away?

And you wish you could change the world
But you know you can not...
And again you're drowning in violence
