

Black Angels

BlutEngel

We are walking the shadows in a world of agony
Will you ever find a way?
We are searching the light to see your dreams and fantasies You're a victim of our thoughts

And when the day will lose the colour, changing into darkness of the night, we will find your inner wish and call you creatures of the night

We are black angels and we will live forever We're waiting for you to share our life
We show you the world through our eyes Come, follow us into the night

We follow the pleasures in a world of agony
Is this what you always wanted?
The darkness surrounds you and you feel so lost inside You're a victim of our minds
