Born again

BlutEngel

There is no love, in your life.
There is no hope inside your mind.
You feel so lost, in this world.
No one there to care for you.

What can I do?
What can I say?
Is there a reason for you to stay?

Day and night I will pray for your soul.
I hope you find your peace in death.
You have no chance, to make it here.
I hope that god will care for you.
If god's a nice guy maybe he will give you a second chance and,
maybe I still be waiting here until your fall again.

You are wishing for a change.
Cause you can't stand this agony.
You put this gun against your head.
You pull the trigger, now you're dead.
Is this what your longing for?
Does it feel better then before?

I'm feeling free and I know this is the way for me.
I'm on my way to paradise, I'll leave this world of hate and li es.

Day and night I will pray for your soul.
I hope you find your peace in death.
You have no chance, to make it here.
I hope that god will care for you.
If god's a nice guy maybe he will give you a second chance and,
maybe I still be waiting here until your fall again.
