

Demons Of The Past (You Walk Away Demo)

BlutEngel

There's so much wrong in your life
And you wish you could turn back time
But life goes on day by day
And only faults will remain

No time for sorrow, no time to regret
You're drowning in the sands of time

We are the shadows of the night
We are the demons of your past
We are the sin that you tried to hide
And we will tear your soul apart
We are the shadows of the night
We are the demons of your past
We are the sin that you tried to hide
And we will tear your soul apart

There's so much wrong in your life
And you wish you could turn back time
No time for sorrow, no time to regret
You're drowning in the sands of time

We are the shadows of the night
We are the demons of your past
We are the sin that you tried to hide
And we will tear your soul apart
We are the shadows of the night
We are the demons of your past
We are the sin that you tried to hide
And we will tear your soul apart

We are the shadows of the night
We are the demons of your past
We are the sin that you tried to hide
And we will tear your soul apart
We are the shadows of the night
We are the demons of your past
We are the sin that you tried to hide
And we will tear your soul apart
