

False gods

BlutEngel

I sit here alone in my room and I pray to you
What have I done?

Why do you deny me your divine light?

Why is it only dark around me?

Why do I feel this deep longing within me?

Why don't you give me your helping hand?

I was always faithful

Why do I have to feel all this pain?

Why is my word descending into chaos?

Why don't you ever give me an answer to my questions?

What have I done to you?

Have I ever disappointed you?

Don't you love me anymore?

Why did you leave me alone?

What have I done?

Why don't you love me anymore?

Why did you leave me alone?

You pray for a wonder, you pray for a light
A light that will guide you through this cold time
You pray for a wonder, you pray for a light
A light that will guide you through this cold time

You don't need love from some false god

Put all your trust in me, the leader of a new religion

You don't need love from some false god

Put all your trust in me, the leader of a new religion

I pray for a wonder, I pray for a light

A light that will guide me through this cold time

You don't need love from some false god

Put all your trust in me, the leader of a new religion

You don't need love from some false god

Put all your trust in me, the leader of a new religion
