

Nothing But A Void

BlutEngel

I've got your face on my skin, it will never be replaced
I might feel destroyed and I just might be afraid
All I've ever loved ends up being erased
I'm so paranoid, feeling rejected and defaced
When I feel annoyed I lose myself inside of you
Expectations are surpassed, devour all your do
You questioned devotion, it's better left unsaid
All alone in silence with this noise inside my head

Without you there is nothing
When the stage lights fade away
I've got you re-imagined
All tied up and enslaved
There's nothing but a void
Only you can fill that need
Nothing but a void
You're my pleasure, guaranteed

Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing but a void
Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing but a void

I've always had this premonition, it's been there from the start
As clouds rumbled over and light turned into dark
Goodbye to other friendships, a long time in the past
You are my closest ally and a marriage that will last
We took no vows together, don't need laws to make it true
I have this picture in a frame, my arms wrapped around you
You blackmail my emotions, of actions that have led
To escalating violence and an icon lying dead

Without you there is nothing
When the stage lights fade away
I've got you re-imagined
All tied up and enslaved
There's nothing but a void
Only you can fill that need
Nothing but a void
You're my pleasure, guaranteed

Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing but a void
Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing but a void

Without you there is nothing
When the stage lights fade away
(When the stage lights fade away)
I've got you re-imagined
All tied up and enslaved
There's nothing but a void
Only you can fill that need
(Only you can fill that need)
Nothing but a void
You're my pleasure, guaranteed

Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing but a void
Nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing but a void

Nothing but a void
Nothing but a void
Nothing but a void
Nothing but a void
