

Sinfull games

BlutEngel

I feel so lonely
I feel so disappointed
Black rain is falling on my past
Disillusioned
All my hope is gone
I think I lost myself somewhere somehow

I wanna feel your tender lips
I lay down by your side
Let me dive into this everlasting kiss
But something ain't right
I lose control
I lose control
I wanna play these sinfull games with you

I can't remember
When I felt free
When I felt love
When I felt love and tenderness in my life
I slowly turn to stone
I don't wanna feel anymore
Cause I won't be touched anymore

I slowly turn to stone
I don't wanna feel anymore
Cause I won't be touched anymore

And then I met you
You turned my life upside down
You touched my soul with your smile
I wanna take your hand
I wanna touch your skin
But my heart is still in chains
And it hurts so much

I wanna feel your tender lips
I lay down by your side
Let me dive into this everlasting kiss
But something ain't right
I lose control
I lose control
I wanna play these sinfull games with you

(But something ain't right)
I lose control
I lose control
I wanna play these sinfull games with you
I lose control
I lose control
I wanna play these sinfull games with you
