Snowblind

BlutEngel

My sweet love, your beauty,
even trough distil shines.
We came to life,
too early I have to close your eyes.
The hostile pleasures I never counted, I never counted.
My presents almost, delusion.
All this loving things, I never meant.
I tried so hard to keep, your ilusions, aglow.
Your degenerated world of thoughts, so if you want me, here I am.
If you want me, here I am.
It's my deputy, that's a part of me.
Something cruel intone forgiven.
Something cruel intone forgiven.
A little lonesome, a little bit said.
I try to rap myself around you like a winter skin.

Every time I close my eyes,
I see the dark side of your heart.
Every time I try to catch your love,
am I so force apart.
My heart was bind today remelt.
You stole my breath with your eternal kiss.
And every vision lost it's color.
All the colors we have tucked.

Won't and won't the circles closing?
Won't and won't he touched her soul?
Heaven is crying and all the snowflames,
try to cover her fragile soul.

To free your soul, the soul he ever wanted.
To thank, the darkness in your life.
The darkness in your life.
You know the coldness, will cut us like a knife.
So if you want me, here I am.
If you want me, here I am.

I know I wanna go on sleeping.
There's a beast inside your mind.
A beast inside your mind.
Hurting you, hunting you and getting out of control.
So if you want me, here I am.
If you want me, here I am.

Won't and won't the circles closing?
Won't and won't he touched her soul?
Heaven is crying and all the snowflames,
try to cover her fragile soul.

Every time I close my eyes,
I see the dark side of your heart.
Every time I try to catch your love,
am I so force apart.
My heart was bind today remelt.
You stole my breath with your eternal kiss.
And every vision lost it's color.
All the colors we have tucked.
