

Back Into It

Blxckie

Ye ye ye ye

She say, she say
I'ma be here til the morning
I know you're friends with the ballers
Tell em to bring out the don
See you right after performing
I got my friends at the door
I was like "wait what you doing?
Could you do something now for me
Hey
Bae put your back into it
I'ma throw the racks up for you

Hey hey hey
Hol' up bro where do I start?
I stay on point like a dart
Neck and my wrist full of charms

Tell em all sound the alarm
Blxckie jus stepped in the party
Playin that bih like atari
Eat it up like calamari

You know me, I'm tryna get to it
I know you break all the rules
Heard that you might have a dude
Heard that that nigga is clueless

Promise its up if the shoe fits
All of my niggas are ruthless
Shit can get tragic and gruesome
I'm off the german I'm woozy

She say, she say
I'ma be here til the morning
I know you're friends with the ballers
Tell em to bring out the don
See you right after performing
I got my friends at the door
I was like "wait what you doing?
Could you do something now for me
Hey
Bae put your back into it
I'ma throw the racks up for you

She got too crazy, she tryna grab me, I said please don't touch on the garments
Bitch I got water all over the country I leave it in different apartments
Shouldn't have pulled up and talked to me on the club baby now look what you started
All of your lil bitty friends wanna pull up on me got me ducking and dodging

She say, she say
I'ma be here til the morning
I know you're friends with the ballers
Tell em to bring out the don

See you right after performing
I got my friends at the door
I was like wait what you doing?
Could you do something now for me
Hey
Bae put your back into it
I'ma throw the racks up for you
