

cry

Blxckie

Seems like time runs away
One request, won't you wait for me
So many trials and mistakes

So why would you go far from me
You know that's not safe
Just let out a cry for me
I'll be on my way

So why would you go far from me
You know that's not safe
Just let out a cry for me
I'll be on my way

I, I, I kinda lost my way but I got back
Swear to god I deserve me a second chance
God forbid, I mess it up again, I swear I'll pack my bag
And after that
You can be with someone that got what I lack
And if he treats you better than I do, don't tell him 'bout your past
I'm embarrassed

Ay, what's gotten into me
Fucked with your energy
I hope these melodies heal you
I'm working on a better me
Girl, you know you balance me
I'm just tryna treat you better, better
I swear these songs are letters
I'm your shoulder to cry on, your shelter
Baby girl, you so strong, let me take that pressure
Off your shoulders

Seems like time runs away
One request, won't you wait for me
So many trials and mistakes

So why would you go far from me
You know that's not safe
Just let out a cry for me
I'll be on my way

So why would you go far from me
You know that's not safe
Just let out a cry for me
I'll be on my way

I, I, I kind lost my way but I got back
Don't know how I got you girl it's magic
With no make up on you still look dashing, you flashy, you fancy
Girl I'm not even lying I ain't even gassing you up
And you know I get busy girl this my passion, not luck
And I was taught to work hard,
If I'm gonna get it, Ima get it cause I work hard
Wake up in the morning, get back to it, cause I work hard
Gotta wash my hands I was scratching out the dirt oh

Baby girl, let's connect
I don't want nothing less
I told you you're the best
I say that with my chest
And I know you agree with me
I know that you need me

Seems like time runs away
One request, won't you wait for me

So why would you go far from me
I'll be on my way

So why would you go far from me
I'll be on my way
