Blxckie

(Just like, just like try to be a better person man
Cause you may think the best, like, course of action is to hold a grudge and make life miserable for someone whos a round you but, like, in the long run its always better to forgive and move on
Never forget though. don't forget that shit 'cause, like, you should use that situation as a learning experience and don't allow it to happen again, you know
Just know that sometimes you won't be right. hopefully it won't happen often but when it does, make sure you own it.)

Straight to the cheque and I dissapear my nigga I'm gone
She told me she wanna give me some head while I'm making a song
You thought we don't have the key to the city my nigga you wrong
Said you got money in fact that's cap you don't have a cent
She told me "blxckie I love you because your voice is heaven sent"

Back to back with all the bangers, you lacking
You sleeping niggas better put on pyjamas
Give me a beat I eat it like I never had nothing to eat this morning
I'm an addict
Niggas want beef I'm all about my salad
I looked at my balance and I started dancing

Fashionable I look fancy
My new girl is sweeter than candy
I am the nigga you can't be
You can find me wherever the gang be

And then, I just started listening to your music and I said nah this nigga got some shit smacking
You know what I mean? its hard shit. you know what I mean? I'm not about some hard bass shit, like, when I say I hard I mean, like, its hitting

Superstar, superstar
Flow is so outer space
Moon or mars
I put all these wack niggas in a jar
Your girl is groupie calling me a God

I swear these rap niggas should never feature me
I make a nigga look like he mini-me
She like my style, and my energy
I do not feel her, but she feeling me

Do the dash
I'ma crash
I do not smoke. what is gas?
But I'm still fly its like I cannot land

Clout internet we the gang, I got a beat from akim then I sang
Making the hits, delicious

I cannot rest I am vicious

Get to the money that's what I was told
I've been so focused my hearts turning cold
Turn my city to the city of gold
Cause I'm a jewel and I call this place home
