

Beginning To The Ending

Blxst

Beginning to the ending
Wake up in the trenches on some rich shit
Baby, I got money, need a witness, baby
You know you so different from them bitches, baby
This my life, you could live this, baby
You know I love it when you winnin', baby
Before I was havin', I was gettin' it, baby
Just stay the same, don't never blend in, babe

Yeah, you know I can't afford to switch up
Gotta keep it solid, right or wrong, your lips shut
Know you feel the pressure when my phone don't pick up
But I'm all in for you
But you so convinced, huh
How many times I gotta show and prove
When you know that I'm the type that really go for you?
And I do it from the heart 'cause what I owe to you

It's hard for me to explain it, yeah
I starve to say that we made it, yeah
You say my lifestyle dangerous, whoa, whoa
Tell me, how you wanna arrange it? Whoa, whoa
Only get one, can't do it basic (Whoa)
Keep me far from minimum wages, yeah, yeah
I know it's hard to choose, but you've gotta make decisions
But if it ain't with you, baby, am I really winnin'?
Beginning to the ending, yeah

One time for lil' baby
Lil' shawty pussy goin' crazy
Thick bitch
Boy, lil shawty it, it
Boy, I swear to God, had that pussy on my hit list

Put that bitch on a island, she like I never did this
You cannot disguise, lil' shawty, know it's lit, lit
Mama think I'm robbin'
My daughter think I'm rich, rich
Really how I'm livin' though, shawty, I could kick this
We been countin' plenty up, shawty, we could split this
