

Better Off Friends

Blxst

This is what you call love?
I fell for what you said
Caught up, don't bother me
I gotta put a wall up just call it what it is
Maybe we'll be better off friends instead

What happened to second chances you don't believe in em?
I thought a true confession would put some ease in ya
Be reasonable with me, easy for you to leave
It's harder to put the pieces together
Cold game I keep picturing you sleep in my sweater
I was stepping up to bitches that wasn't reaching your level
Swimming deep with the devil
Still I was treating you special
Never brought it back home had to keep it professional
Uh

I could admit I never wished
It was like this but it is now
It's making sense how back then was all in
We on the fence now
Thought an angel was sent down but
This ain't what you call love

This is what you call love?
I fell for what you said
Caught up, don't bother me
I gotta put a wall up just call it what it is

Reminiscing on what it could've been (could've been)
But I couldn't put up with this again
A win is a win
We dodging a bullet
You say you triggered but you didn't expect me to pull it
Movies in the phone I'm left with the footage
Them memories gone that's the best way to put it
I gotta deal with myself
Wounded tell me how do I heal without help
Iono
What's ups without downs?
The path ain't perfect to suits and white gowns
Yeah
I know I chose the lifestyle
Imma get it right I'm just wrong for right now

This is what you call love?
I fell for what you said
Caught up, don't bother me
I gotta put a wall up just call it what it is
Maybe we'll be better off friends instead

If you on [?] just tell me

Man, I'm on my way to you right now tho like what's the problem?

(Why waste your time?)

What is it really about though?

(Are you dumb? Or are you stupid?)

You weird!

(Whatever! How am I weird when you buying chains and)

'Cause I bought a chain? Wedding rin..?!

(So disrespectful!)

I'm disrespectful? Maybe we better off friends, I love you but it's always something with you
