

Don't Forget

Blxst

All you paigon yutes were sleeping
When I told you that Blxst was next yeah?
Well now look, he's not only next he's the last
Blxst is the one, the two, and the three fam
That's a wrap, you just gotta stop making music
Fuckin mad fam!
You should know
New Givenchy slides when I step but
I can't slip with this water on my neck
Bitch we been them guys but you slept
Aye I forgive but I don't forget
Yeah I don't forget
I know they watching
I'm gone make them upset cause I don't forget
I'm still him and I ain't stopped yet
Aye
The underdogs up now
Tread lightly every one of y'all fucked now
I done seen them all switch
It's enough now
Skating on thin ice with my trust now
Came from busses to buckets to bussdown
We are not the same I was mud bound
Wait I wonder how the hate come with love now
I can't relate I'm as humble as they come now
I done took off and I ain't land yet
Doubled my bandwidth tripled my net worth
That ain't half of the plan yet
Yeah I'm a vibe forreal she understand that Can't name a soul in her circle that ain't a fan yet
But I cannot forget dark times made me
We got more lit
Life so crazy you can't force it
The day that I quit day that I forfeit that just wouldn't make sense
New Givenchy slides when I step but
I can't slip with this water on my neck
Bitch we been them guys but you slept
Aye I forgive but I don't forget
Yeah I don't forget
I know they watching
I'm gone make them upset cause I don't forget
I'm still him and I ain't stopped yet
And I don't forget nothing
Woofing when they see me they be Christians up in person
I hope all them diss songs was really worth it
I hope he choke on some soft serve sherbet
All them mentions on the gram I know they workin
All these bitches on the gram I know they want me
But they ain't for me
They wasn't with me when I was down on my lonely
When I was battling the devil on the podium
I'm in the Dawn so they notice me
Don't blame me I'm just doing what I'm supposed to do
Fuckin over shit don't get close to me
Man you know it's me
Don Toliver Mr. Mosley
I be poppin it

The Stinc Team in the building who you rockin with
You ain't poppin shit stop poppin it
The Stinc Team in the building who you rockin with
New Givenchy slides when I step but
I can't slip with this water on my neck
Bitch we been them guys but you slept
Aye I forgive but I don't forget
Yeah I don't forget
I know they watching
I'm gone make them upset cause I don't forget
I'm still him and I ain't stopped yet
