

"Evgle & Son"

Blxst

Yo, son!

Aye come over here and bust these corners with your old man real quick

Come on now, uh huh

(Yo, Big E!)

You see how everything is moving?

And you know exactly where it's going don't ya?

It's going to you Birdie

That's right

Evgle & Son, Chauffeur Car Service!

Whew, if I could give you anything more

It would be the whole world

But you ain't even ready for the whole world if you don't have these three thing on you, and I wish somebody would have taught 'em to me

But I got ya

The three things that will always throw a man off his path: a woman you ain't got no business dealing with, an enemy disguised as a friend, and that man in the mirror

The only problems we have are the ones that we create

So you look straight ahead, stare that man in the face, and never look back

Repeat that

"Never look back"

And if you ever feel lost, I'll always come find you
