

Keep Comin' Back

Blxst

Your intention is pure
Actions speak loud and I listen to yours
This ain't what you used to, I'm different for sure
Every single minute you missin' it more
That's why you keep comin' back
I'm risking it all
Blow the bag on you, you know me, it's more
Better be the only one, tell me "It's yours"
Every single minute you missin' it more
That's why you keep comin' back

1942 just hittin' different tonight
Pullin' up on you, that's all I'm missin' tonight
You know you fuckin' with a star, make a wish and I might
I go too hard, ain't no drippin' polite
I been sippin' liquor, say I'm trippin', I might
You know I'm tryna kick it with ya like I'm pickin' a fight
You been dealin' with your feelings out and in of your life
I been missin', time been tickin' but I'm gettin' it right

Your intention is pure
Actions speak loud and I listen to yours
This ain't what you used to, I'm different for sure
Every single minute you missin' it more
That's why you keep comin' back
I'm risking it all
Blow the bag on you, you know me, it's more
Better be the only one, tell me "It's yours"
Every single minute you missin' it more
That's why you keep comin' back

All the sudden I got a feelin' you want to trap me
You can't get enough of the kid so don't cap me
Like how you be slowly revealin', you so nasty
You gon' let me hit with no ceilings in the Benz backseat
Ooh, she so fancy
How she switch it up and be rude but so classy
She say "Do you tell me the truth or just gas me?"
Shawty while I'm baggin' the blues they can't catch me
Only you could distract me

So, can we get it lit tonight?
You know the vibes
If you fall it's alright
You fuckin' with a boss, it's for life
If it's so I want to know it's mine
If I'm fallin for you don't start actin' brand new
Oh, oh

Your intention is pure
Actions speak loud and I listen to yours
This ain't what you used to, I'm different for sure
Every single minute you missin' it more
That's why you keep comin' back
I'm risking it all
Blow the bag on you, you know me, it's more
Better be the only one, tell me "It's yours"

Every single minute you missin' it more
That's why you keep comin' back
