

Let It Be Known

Blxst

Aye

Something 'bout that water need the crib right on the coast (Sheee)
Expectations grow inside the ones you love the most
I'm not the confrontational type, I'd rather be ghost
When it be too much ego in it niggas do the most, yeah
You know it's love and all above but don't take me for granted
Ain't obligated to do favors just because we family
I'm at that point where it's okay if you don't understand me
Need that unconditional like you get from granny
Yeah, yeah

Aye

I took my losses and I doubled up
Yeah, been double crossed and now it's hard to trust
I can't even chop it with old homies on catching up
All this time we wasted you should know what's up

But if it's love, let it be known
But the fake shit got no place inside this home (Sheee)
I don't expect to be flawless but I still got to right my wrongs
Just know I kept it solid 'fore I'm gone
But if it's love, let it be known (Let it be known)
Don't wait too late to fix mistakes just call the phone
Gotta give before receiving need some flowers of my own
Just know I kept it solid 'fore I'm gone
Yeah

I can't even fake the feel, are you tryna break or build?
You could show nothing but love, they'd find a way to hate you still
I try to be perfect, but what's perfect if I can't be real?
Let's keep it surface till I know what we converse is sealed
And I keep a shield up, it's only right
We gain trust over time but it could be broken overnight, yeah
A way of life loyalty like earning stripes
If it's real then let it be known
When it's fake I can't sit right

If it's love, let it be known
But the fake shit got no place inside this home (Sheee)
I don't expect to be flawless but I still got to right my wrongs
Just know I kept it solid 'fore I'm gone
But if it's love, let it be known (Let it be known)
Don't wait too late to fix mistakes just call the phone
Gotta give before receiving need some flowers of my own
Just know I kept it solid 'fore I'm gone
Yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
