

Long Way

Blxst

I don't even know what a homie is
Block list long as the money is
Locked in I don't know what lonely is
Fly back home for the summer yeah
Yeah
I jumped in like I coulda been
Boxed up gone for a hundred years
Let's just say I'm glad I took the long way

Gon' get what you want
Take what you will
Eat what you kill
Everyone will
Get what you give
That's how we live
That's how it is
That's how it is

Hard to remember your name
I lost track
They all start lookin' the same
It's all cap
Facts
Now I got infinity fame
I'm sick your handshakes like venom in veins
Okay
Comin' for whatever I claim
Thought I didn't remember who belittled my name
Kept my head down gassed up still in my lane
Damn I looked up and December just came

I wish I woulda known, wish I knew
And I ain't even kick my feet up they tryna evict me out my home
Put the city on, yes I did
And I ain't even takin' all the credit like I did it all alone

I'm talkin'
Nipsey, gone
Drakeo, gone
How many legends can replace that throne?
How many lessons till we make that known?
Took two Ls but your name live long forever

I don't even know what a homie is
Block list long as the money is
Locked in I don't know what lonely is
Fly back home for the summer yeah
Yeah
I jumped in like I coulda been
Boxed up gone for a hundred years
Let's just say I'm glad I took the long way

Gon' get what you want
Take what you will
Eat what you kill
Everyone will
Get what you give

That's how we live
That's how it is
That's how it is

Energy wilin' wilin'
Never go silent silent
Everything all or nothing
Everything all or nothing

Run for the hell of it, for the hell of it
Run never settling, never settling
Run till you elevate, till you elevate
Run till you elevate, till you elevate

Top of the yawning top hats, raise and praise

Wanna give a shout out to the little homie, taking over his pop's business, E
vgle & Son Chauffeur Car Service

Make sure y'all show him some love if you see him slidin' through the city

And this next one is in honor of his pops
Long live the big homie!
