

Ten Summers Or Better

Blxst

Woke up on a plane, where do I land today?
I can't explain, I went from bad to great
Some people got on and threw they bag away
I want this shit forever, ten summers or better
Hurting my soul to know they passed away
I gotta leave home again, it's sad to say
That's why I put on to get my family straight
And I'ma do it forever, ten summers or better

Better livin', better decisions
Can't be another crash out, head-on collision
I could've took the fast route, that's not why I'm in it
Like would you rather stand out or dare to be different?
Holdin' my weight, hustle my trait
Try to picture waiting on niggas I couldn't relate (I can't)
Soon as I jumped in my bag, went straight to the bank
Shit what you think, slept on my rank, then I

Woke up on a plane, where do I land today?
I can't explain, I went from bad to great
Some people got on and threw they bag away
I want this shit forever, ten summers or better
Hurting my soul to know they passed away
I gotta leave home again, it's sad to say
That's why I put on to get my family straight
And I'ma do it forever, ten summers or better

Yeah, him, it ain't no debate
What I'm doing, playing in Paris like I'm Hov and Ye?
Used to be too embarrassed if my voice would break
Till I blew up the game like I'm Boise State
Aye, it's value in the journey
My only L is all the lessons that you learned me
They politic on my progression, am I worthy?
I'm 30,000 feet up, really don't concern me

Woke up on a plane, where do I land today?
I can't explain, I went from bad to great
Some people got on and threw they bag away
I want this shit forever, ten summers or better
Hurting my soul to know they passed away
I gotta leave home again, it's sad to say
That's why I put on to get my family straight
And I'ma do it forever, ten summers or better

And cut, that's a wrap on Birdie!
