

Time Will Only Tell

Blxst

Aye, nothing you owe to me, loyalty all I ask from you
Yeah, love don't cost a thing but if it did blow the bag on you
I understand that you put up with a lot but
You never had nothing real till I popped up
Are you for life? The type to get rocked up
Time will only tell

You know I'm stuck on you
Really I could flip and turn it up on you
Really I could never spend enough on you
Why you told them bitches how I fuck on you?
Knowing all them bitches want one up on you
We could make this anything you want, baby
Know that I'm gone do it I got love for you
When you going through it I got drugs for you
Still gone thug for you, aye

Aye, nothing you owe to me, loyalty all I ask from you
Yeah, love don't cost a thing but if it did blow the bag on you
I understand that you put up with a lot but
You never had nothing real till I popped up
Are you for life? The type to get rocked up
Time will only tell

The moral of the story
You bet not ever put me in the same category
Got a couple things but you gang, they ain't for me
You know all them other niggas lame and they boring
I'm the type that let you do your thang in the foreign
'Cause you driving me too crazy
Maybe your vibe just be too wavy
I know that they not like me and never could phase me
Got a feeling I'ma have your heart for ages, yeah

Aye, nothing you owe to me, loyalty all I ask from you
Yeah, love don't cost a thing but if it did blow the bag on you
I understand that you put up with a lot but
You never had nothing real till I popped up
Are you for life? The type to get rocked up
Time will only tell

Don't be salty, yes, I'm sorry for the pain that they cause
Once you lose something as real as me, might go through withdrawals
Might be flocking, I got options, but I want you involved
So when you done trippin', I'll put you in position
I can come check that list off (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

Aye, nothing you owe to me, loyalty all I ask from you
Yeah, love don't cost a thing but if it did blow the bag on you
I understand that you put up with a lot but
You never had nothing real till I popped up
