

Wrong Or Right

Blxst

Yeah

You be thuggin' through the lonely nights, yeah
Always knew you was the soldier type, yeah
'Cause what we built ain't overnight, yeah, yeah
You ain't never folding, right?
Even if I'm wrong or right

And you know I'm far from perfect (Far from perfect)
Plead the fifth if twelve come searchin'
I know one or two things for certain (Yeah, yeah)
If I ain't with you, I'm putting the work in What would I be without my baby? (What would I be?)
Thought alone might break me
Gotta protect you, niggas better respect you
That's why I keep it off safety, yeah, yeah

You be thuggin' through the lonely nights (You be thuggin', yeah, you be)
Always knew you was the soldier type (Always knew you was, yeah)
'Cause what we built ain't overnight, uh, yeah, yeah
You ain't never folding, right?
Even if I'm wrong or right, yeah

I been knee deep, all in Tryna hang it up, but the streets keep callin'
Too many bags, gotta street sweep all them
I gotta get you that new crib with the garden
Wrong or right, you fuck with me regardless
Far from flawless, but I keep it solid
You know I make it up to you in massages
Gotta be back to back, foreign in garages
I'm just gon' call it
If you straight, then I'm straight
If you good, then I'm great (Shee)
But it's never no pressure, just love the way
You hold it down, I would have it no other way, yeah (Yeah, yeah)

You be thuggin' through the lonely nights (You be thuggin', yeah, you
be)
Always knew you was the soldier type (Always knew you was, yeah)
'Cause what we built ain't overnight, uh, yeah, yeah
You ain't never folding, right?
Even if I'm wrong or right
You be thuggin' through the lonely nights

You be thuggin' through the lonely nights, yeah
Always knew you was the soldier type, yeah
'Cause what we built ain't overnight, yeah, yeah
You ain't never folding, right?
Even if I'm wrong or right
