

Another Sun

Bo Bruce

Come come everyone
It's time to talk
Ain't no point in trying to roam
When you can't even walk
Nothing's gonna stay the same
In the silence
You don't have to think
Just try to hold right behind
The clouds, if you wait
The sun will come
You don't have to know how to feel
In the silence
In the silence

And all of your lines will change again
No need to chase it till the end
And I'm gonna break, just let 'em bend

We gon' run like another sun
Waiting to come, waiting to come
Well, wait come on, wait come on
We are not done yet
'Cause I know there's another sun
Waiting to come, waiting to come
We've only begun, only begun
We are not done, yet

All the lights will flex and bend
We're lying on the other this fast
Everything passes in the end
Comes round again
All the darkest [?] is implied
All the coded stars still shine bright
Everything passes in the end
Comes round again
