The white white snow's coming tonight
Make a wish upon your kiss

So much space between us
But I felt it suddenly shrink away
The moment we locked arms
And looked up to the cold sky
Picking out tea at the store
We share it like usual
I'm wrapped in your chest

Always, always, stay by side
So I can forever gaze at the one I love
Snowflakes, your warmth is
Winter's gift, look, it's snowing

Even if I'm met with pain
And loneliness along the road
I swear to always stay honest
To my feelings for you

The CD you lent me
To listen to when I'm down
Is a love letter of songs

Always, always, wanted to tell you
Hey, thank you for being with me
The snow falls, as if to say
Hug the person you love tighter

All that time I spent looking for something special
I didn't expect to feel
The mystery of being this
Connected to you

Always, always, stay by side
I want to go on a journey to find our dream
Snowflakes are the sky's cold white breath
Falling on the street corner, look, it's snowing

The white white snow's coming tonight
Make a wish upon your kiss
