

Frozen

bôa

Lover, I'll leave a message that you won't read
Filled with words that you won't believe
Another way to make me freeze, yeah

It's too late to bring attention to the love that we gave
To make you melt and to release
This time is wasted and I can see oh

Cuz your broken heart has frozen mine
And I'm burning cold inside
And your frozen heart has broken mine
And I'm burning out I'm burning out, oh

She's gone and now you'll carry this pain on Take all the love that is frozen
And pull me down in the river with you

It's too late to bring attention to the love that we made
To make you melt and to feel released
This time is wasted and I can see oh

Cuz your frozen heart has broken mine
And I'm burning cold inside
And your frozen heart has broken mine
And I'm burning out I'm burning out, oh

This time I'm burning

Lover, I leave a message that you won't read
Filled with words that you won't believe
Another way to make me freeze, oh-woah-oh
(Oooooo)

Cuz your broken heart has frozen mine
And I'm burning cold inside
And your frozen heart has broken mine
And I'm burning out I'm burning out, oh

Cuz your frozen heart has broken mine
And I'm burning cold inside
And your frozen heart has broken mine
And I'm burning out I'm burning out, oh

(Oh-woah-oh)
Burning out, I'm burning out
(Oh-woah-oh)
Burning out, I'm burning out
(Oh-woah-oh)
(Oh)
