

End of the Story

Bob Catley

I think I saw a light at the end of the road
I didn't believe we'd get this far
I think I heard the sound of a forgotten song
Making me feel like we belong

Then I see that it's fine
For it's the end of the story now
Look at me, we survived
Today, some way, somehow
Then you'll see you can leave your fear behind
You and me, forever free

At our journey's end, having rode the storm
Tears stained memories keep us warm
Our forgotten youth only hides the truth
I'll hold you close away from harm

Then I see that it's fine
For it's the end of the story now
Look at me, we survived
Today, some way, somehow
Then you'll see you can leave your fear behind
You and me, forever free

Even at our darkest time
From a ray of light, a bell that chimes
It sends a message through the air
Hold strong and never fear
Right the wrongs, you're so near
Only then will it be clear

Then I see that it's fine
For it's the end of the story now
Look at me, we survived
Today, some way, somehow
Then you'll see you can leave your fear behind
You and me, forever free

Now that our time is done, in victory the battle won
Freedom reigns for one and all
So lest we forget, and history regret
We nearly didn't make it here at all

Then I see that it's fine
For it's the end of the story now
Look at me, we survived
Today, some way, somehow
Then you'll see you can leave your fear behind
You and me, forever free
