The Times They Are A-Changin'

Bob Dylan

1. Come gather round people wherever you roam
   G Emi C G
   and admit that the waters around you have grown G Emi C G
   and accept it that soon you'll be drenched to the bone Ami D
   if your time to you is worth saving C G D
   then you'd better start swimming or you'll sink like a stone G D G
   for the times they are a-changing.

2. Come writers and critics who prophesize with your pens and keep your eyes wide the chance won't come again and don't speak too soon for the wheel's still in spin and there's no telling who that it's naming but the loser now will be later to win for the times they are a-changing.

3. Come senators congressmen please heed the call don't stand in the doorway don't block up the hall for he that gets hurt will be he who has stalled the battle outside ragging will soon shake your windows and rattle your halls for the times they are a-changing.

4. Come mothers and fathers all over this land and don't criticize what you can't understand your sons and your daughters are beyond your command your old role is rapidly aging please get out of the new one if you can't lend your hand for the times they are a-changing.

5. The line it is drawn the curse it is cast the slow one now will later be fast and the present now will later be past the order is rapidly fading and the first one now will later be last for the times they are a-changing.
