

Game Plan

Bob Schneider

baby here's the game plan i'm gonna be a new man i'm gonna start over be a little better than better than i used to be back in the seventies
baby i can do it
baby you can count on me

i'm fallin' off the fourth floor harder than a [car door] steppin' on the gas feelin' like an [asprin] lookin' for some comfort speedin' off the cliff now baby hold your breath
it's gonna be a long fall baby [allright] above now i feel like a blind man and i could pop a nine in open up the front door

get into the open
throw yourself a left hook right into the [spokes]
again

right into the [spokes] again baby let me out let me in i said it once i'll say it again i'm all shakin' shakin' in the shower but nobody can touch me i got super powers

and i'm up on the ceilin' [no where] they can reach me top of the city
nothin' they can teach me i'm fifty foot high now higher than this building higher than the ceiling higher than this feeling

[i'll] make it as a monkey feel like a flunky
and i just want to use you oh [like a junky] baby i'd move it
move it with me right now baby take me with you take me with you right now take me with you right now take me with you right now take me with you right now i'll be your ship

i'll be your captain
hold me under water
show me the map again

the one that's gonna take us take us to a new place i can get a haircut
i can get a new face

baby go to sleep now from cincinatti i'll be your baby
i'll be your fatty
you're like a bullet stuck inside a dead bird sleepin' on the forest floor roaches on the bedroom door baby won't you hold me
in your little small hands and i will be a fortress
