

Loneliness Is a Feeling

Bob Seger

As the sand dunes of time march on
The wind blows the storms to the shore
Sadness and loneliness hand in hand
Lord I feel no more
Loneliness is a feeling

I'm lost in a world with love all around
Standing there like a pillar of salt
Don't know the day, my hair's turning grey
Ooh is the tide coming to take my blues away

Loneliness is a feeling
Loneliness is a feeling
Loneliness is a feeling

When she tells you your love was a sin
You lie in your bed all alone
And all the children come in to your heart
Lord I feel no more

Loneliness, loneliness
Loneliness, loneliness
Loneliness, loneliness
Loneliness, loneliness
