

Star Tonight

Bob Seger

She's gonna star tonight
She's gonna get made up, rehearse, and play her part tonight
Gonna star tonight
She's gonna be so good she'll break the critics' hearts tonight

Isn't it amazing what the girl can do?
Acting like she's happy when she feels so blue inside
No one seems to notice that it's all a play
Isn't it a wonder how it never seems that way?

She's gonna star tonight
She's gonna raise the level of her craft up to an art tonight
She's gonna star tonight
She's gonna blow the competition's hope right off the chart tonight

Lately she'll surprise him with a sudden move
Freeze him like an extra with her baby blue blues
Maybe she'll unnerve him with a change of pace
Capture then release him in a different place
Isn't it amazing how she makes him love the chase?

Isn't it amazing what the girl can do?
Acting like she's happy when she feels so blue inside
Maybe she'll unnerve him with a change of pace
Capture then release him in a different place
Isn't it a wonder how she makes him love the chase?

She's gonna star tonight
